INDEX TO VOL. XLVI

The titles of articles are printed in italics

ABE

ABERDEEN (Countess of), The International Council of Women in Congress, 18–25
Afghanistan, Lord Ellenborough's disastrous policy towards, 125–129
Africander Bond, tyranny of, 522–526
After the Present War, 693–707
After the Verdict—September 1899, 521
All-British Railway to China, An, 484–492
Allegiance, Parliamentary Oath of, 317–333
America, A Negro on the Position of the Negro in, 957–973
American Negro, The, and his Place, 459–474
Anglican Church and 'continuity,' 203–212
Antimasques, masques, and triumphs, Elizabethan and Puritan, 102–111
Antwerp, The Van Dyck Exhibition at, 734–752
Archbishop's Judgment on Ritual, 685–692
Armies of Russia, The Excessive, 173–179
Armies, The Future of the Great, 383–395
Army, British, necessity for its increase, 876–880
Arundel and Bessborough gems, 253–258
Australia v. England cricket test matches, 792–797
Australian Family, The Native, 51–64
Austria at the End of the Century, 1008–1019
Autograph letters of some celebrated persons, 79–83

BAILLIE-GROHMAN (W. A.), Rifle-shooting as a National Sport, 367–382
Banks Miss Elizabeth L.), The American Negro and his Place, 459–474
Barnett (Rev. Canon), Charity versus Outdoor Relief, 818–826
Batson (Mrs. Stephen), Town and Country Labourers, 570–582
Benson (E. F.), Plagiarism, 974–981
Birchenough (Henry), The Imperial Function of Trade, 352–366
Black and white race difficulties in America, 459–474, 957–973
Boccaccio, Italian villas pictured by, 289–301
Bohemia and the 'Cisleithanian' Parliament, 1008–1019
Brains, Our, Why are they deteriorating? 262–272
Bushby (H. N. G.), Parliamentary Government in Japan, 142–152
Byron, Did he write 'Werner'? 243–250

CABINETS and Parties in Japan, 142–152
Canadian trade and Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Preferential Tariff, 94–101
Cape Colony, A Voice from, 522–526
Carlyle as an Historian, 493–503
Casus Belli in South Africa, The, 334–344
Catholicism, The Intellectual Future of, 753–768
Ceramic art of Persia in thirteenth century, 560–569
Ceylon, A Devil-Dance in, 814–817
Charity versus Outdoor Relief, 818–826
Children's labour and education, 8–17
China, An All-British Railway to, 484–492
Christian doctrine and Catholicism, 753–768
Christian Religion, The Future of the, 514–520

CHU

Church Crisis, The, and Disestablishment, 673–684
Church, The, Is there really a 'Crisis' in? 112–121
Churchman's Politics, The, 982–987
Cicero's Correspondence, 432–444
Clare, North: Leaves from a Diary, 603–612
Clarke (Col. Sir G. Sydenham), The Limitations of Naval Force, 180–191
Clifford (Mrs. W. K.), A Supreme Moment, 153–172
Cobb (Rev. Dr.), The Church Crisis and Disestablishment, 673–684
Colchester (Lord), Lord Ellenborough, 238–242
Collins (Edwin), The Teeth of the Schoolboy, 84–93
Colonies, Great Britain's trade with her, 355–363
— Young men in the, depending on remittances, 827–832
Colvin (Sidney), Mr. Stephen Phillips's Tragedy of Paolo and Francesca, 915–933
Comets and shooting stars, their common origin, 939–946
Commons preservation and open spaces of the future, 26–35
Congress of International Council of Women, 18–25, 192–202, 455–458
Conscience Clause for the Laity, A, 654–672
Conscription and the British Army, 876–880
Consumptives, The Cry of the, 641–653
Continuity, What Church has? 203–212
Cooper (Mrs. Orman), The Humours of Ter-na-nog, 282–288
Corner-Ohlmüs (Mrs.), A Devil-Dance in Ceylon, 814–817
Cox (J. G. Snead), The Outlook at Ottawa, 94–101
Craig Brook Salmon Hatchery, A Visit to the, 396–409
Cricket in 1899, 792–797
'Crisis' in the Church, Is there really a? 112–121
Cromwell and the Electorate, 947–956
Cumby (Captain), his account of battle of Trafalgar, 718–728

DALMENY Experiments, The, 'Manuring with Brains,' 782–791
Dante's Ghosts, 65–76
Deane (Rev. Anthony C.), The Churchman's Politics, 982–987

FRE

'Decameron,' The, and its Villas, 289–301
Dental disease in children, 84–93
Dentistry in Schools, 84–93
Des Vœux (Sir William), The Connection of England with Newfoundland, 223–237
Devil-Dance, A, in Ceylon, 814–817
Devonshire, Duchess of, Did she or Byron write Werner? 243–250
Dicey (Edward), After the Present War, 693–707
Disestablishment, The Church Crisis and, 673–684
Disestablishment and Ritualism, 982–987
Dowden (Professor Edward), The English Masque, 102–111
Dreyfus case, After the Verdict, 521
Dutch and English in the Past, 891–904
Duthie (Rev. D. Wallace), The Remittance Man, 827–832

EAST, the Farthest, The War-cloud in, 988–995
Eccles (Miss C. O'Conor-), The Hospital where the Plague broke out, 591–602
Education and industrial progress, 550–555
— and Irish language, 213–222
Egypt, a trip to, by Sir Wemyss Reid, 1020–1034
Electricity in India, 556–559
Ellenborough, Lord, 123–130
— — a reply, 238–242
Elsdale (Col. H.), Why are our Brains deteriorating? 262–272
England's treatment of Newfoundland, 223–237
English and Dutch in the Past, 891–904
English Masque, The, 102–111
Establishment and Disestablishment of the Church of England, 673–684
Eustace of Flai and Sunday observance, 36–42
Exorcising devils from a sick woman in Ceylon, 814–817

FARMING, manurial experiments, 782–791
Fashoda, Life on the Nile south of, 273–281
Father of Letters, The, 432–444
Fearon (D. R.), Dante's Ghosts, 65–76
France, Old-age Pensions in, 131–141
Freer (Miss A. Goodrich), Horticulture

FRE

as a Profession for the Educated, 769-781
Frewen (Moreton), A Visit to the Craig Brook Salmon Hatchery, 396-409
Future of the Christian Religion, The, 514-520
Future of the Great Armies, The, 383-395

GAELIC language, attempt to resuscitate, 213-222
Gaffney (Mrs.), A Woman's Criticism of the Women's Congress, a Reply, 455-458
Gardening, Scientific instruction in, 769-781
Ghosts, Dante's, 65-76
Gibbon, Suzanne Curchod, and Madame de Staël, 302-316
Gibson (James Arthur), The Cry of the Consumptives, 641-653
Gorst (Sir John), School Children as Wage-earners, 8-17
Gower (Hon. Frederick Leveson), Did Byron write 'Werner'? 243-250
Great Unpaid, The, 541-549
Green (E. M., (Native Unrest in South Africa, 708-716
Green (Mrs. John Richard), English and Dutch in the Past, 891-904
Guns, rifles, shells, explosives, and cartridges of modern warfare, 905-914

HALLETT (Holt S.), The War-cloud in the Farthest East, 988-995
Hatching of salmon, shad, trout, and carp, 396-409
Hill (Miss Octavia), The Open Spaces of the Future, 26-35
Hindu Home, A, 996-1007
Historical study and Carlyle's works, 493-503
Holland and England, their former co-operations, commercial rivalries, and contests, 891-904
Horticulture as a Profession for the Educated, 769-781
Hospital, The, where the Plague broke out, 591-602
Hotels for poor men, Rowton Houses, 445-454
Hungary, Austria, and 'Cisleithania,' present political relations, 1008-1019

IMAGINATION and art of poetry, 504-513
Imperial Function of Trade, The, 352-366

LYN

Indian Plague Story, An, 410-431
Indian Rani, An, and her home, 996-1007
— Viceroyalty of Lord Ellenborough 123-130
International Council of Women in Congress, The, 18-25; A Woman's Criticism of, 192-202, 455-458
Ireland, a botanist's rambles in Clare, 603-612
— the 'Land of the Young,' humours of, 282-288
Irish Language, The Recent Fuss about the, 213-222

JAPAN, Parliamentary Government in, 142-152
Japan and Russia and the Korean question, 988-995
Journalism, Modern, 848-864
— as a career for women, 200, 201

KAFFIRS of South Africa, 708-716
Korea, Japan and Russia in, 988-995
Kropotkin (Prince), Recent Science, 934-946

LABOURERS, Town and Country, 570-582
Lambeth and 'Liberation,' 685-692
Land and the Labourer, 570-582
Lawless (Hon. Emily), North Clare: Leaves from a Diary, 603-612
Leonids and other shooting stars, 934-946
Letters, The Father of, 432-444
Liberal Party, The, and Lord Rosebery, 729-733
Liberalism and its Cross-currents, 527-540
'Liberation,' Lambeth and, 685-692
Literature before Letters, 798-813
London County Council, work of, 543-547
Lord's Day observance in Middle Ages, 36-50
Low (Miss Frances H.), A Woman's Criticism of the Women's Congress, 192-202
Low (Sidney), The Future of the Great Armies, 383-395; South African Problems and Lessons, 865-880
Lützow (Francis Count), Austria at the End of the Century, 1008-1019
Lynching in Southern States of America, 966-968

MAC

MACDONAGH (Michael), The Evolution of the Parliamentary Oath, 317–333
Mahaffy (Professor), The Recent Fuss about the Irish Language, 213–222
Mallock (W. H.), The Intellectual Future of Catholicism, 753–768
Manuring with Brains, 782–791
Marksmanship, national rifle matches, 367–382
Marlborough Gems, The, 251–261
Marriage customs of Australian blacks, 51–64
Masque, The English, 102–111
Massingham (H. W.), The Future of Lord Rosebery, 729–733
Maurice (Major-General), Terms used in Modern Gunnery, 905–914
Maxwell (Hon. Marcia C.), Madame Necker, 302–316
Mediæval Sunday, The, 36–50
Mental deterioration in modern times, 262–272
Meteorites and comets, 934–946
Milaraspa, the Tibetan poet, 613–632
Militarism and its results, 387–394
Milne (Arthur D.), Life on the Nile south of Fashoda, 273–281
Mivart (Dr. St. George), What Church has 'Continuity'? 203–212
Mnemonic literature before the invention of writing, 798–813
Moreing (C. A.), An All-British Railway to China, 484–492
Morris (Hon. Martin), The Philosophy of Poetry, 504–513
Müller (Professor Max), Literature before Letters, 798–813

NATIVE Australian Family, The, 51–64
Native Unrest in South Africa, 708–716
Naval Force, The Limitations of, 180–191
Necker, Madame, 302–316
Negro in America, A Negro on the Position of the, 957–973
Negro, The American, and his Place, 459–474
Newfoundland, The Connection of England with, 223–237
Newspapers, The, 848–864, 1020–1034
Newton-Robinson (Charles), The Marlborough Gems, 251–261
Nile, Life on the, south of Fashoda, 273–281
North Clare: Leaves from a Diary, 603–612

OATH, The Parliamentary Evolution of, 317–333

PRO

O'Conor-Eccles, see Eccles
Old-age Pensions in France, 131–141
Ommanney (Admiral), remarks on battle of Trafalgar, 717, 718
Open Spaces of the Future, The, 26–35
Oporto, The Plague in, 833–847
Orange Free State, its alleged grievances and future treatment, 883–889
Originality, plagiarism and unintelligent theft, 974–981
Ottawa, The Outlook at, 94–101
Over-education, The Fear of, 550–555

PAOLO and Francesca, Mr. Stephen Phillips's Tragedy of, 915–932
Parks and open spaces of London, 26–35
Parliamentary Government in Japan, 142–152
Parliamentary Oath, The Evolution of, 317–333
Paul (Herbert), The Father of Letters, 432–444
Peace Conference, its results, 383–386
Peel, Sir Robert, and Lord Ellenborough, 123–130
Pensions, Old-age, in France, 131–141
Percival (Rev. Dr.), The Future of the Christian Religion, 514–520
Persian Lustre Pottery, Thirteenth-century, 560–569
Phillips (Claude), The Van Dyck Exhibition at Antwerp, 734–752
Phillips (Stephen), his drama of Paolo Malatesta and Francesca da Rimini, 915–933
Philosophy of Poetry, The, 504–513
Plagiarism, 974–981
Plague in Oporto, The, 833–847
Plague Story, An Indian, 410–431
Plague, The Hospital where it broke out, 591–602
Play in one Act, A Supreme Moment, 153–172
Poet and Mystic, A Tibetan, 613–632
Poetry, The Philosophy of, 504–513
Political parties in England, present position of, 527–540
Politics and parties in Japan, 142–152
Politics, The Churchman's, 982–987
Pottery, Lustre, Thirteenth-century Persian, 560–569
Powder and Paint, 633–640
Protectorate of Sierra Leone, 475–483
Protestant and Catholic parties in the Church of England, 112–122
Protestantism, effect of scientific criticism upon, 753–768

RACIAL problem in America, 459–474, 957–973
— — in South Africa, 865–876
Railway, An All-British, to China, 484–492
Recent Science, 934–946
Rees (Hon. J. D.), A Hindu Home, 996–1007
Reformation, The New, 654–672
Reid (Sir Wemyss), The Newspapers, 848–864, 1020–1034
Relief of the poor, an experiment in Whitechapel, 818–826
Remittance Man, The, 827–832
Representative government, Cromwell's attitude towards, 947–956
Rifle-shooting as a National Sport, 367–382
Robertson (Edmund), The Casus Belli in South Africa, 334–344
— — Sir S. Shippard's Rejoinder, 345–351
Roe (Sir Charles), Is there really a 'Crisis' in the Church? 112–121
Rogers (Rev. J. Guinness), Liberalism and its Cross-currents, 527–540
Romanism and Protestantism, Prospects of, 514–520, 753–768
Rosebery, Lord, The Future of, 729–733
Round (J. Horace), Cromwell and the Electorate, 947–956
Rowton Houses—from a Resident, 445–454
Russell (Geo. W. E.), Lambeth and 'Liberation,' 685–692
Russia, Lord Ellenborough's policy of opposition to, 124
— military railways in, 173–179
Russia, The Excessive Armies of, 173–179
Russian intrigues in Korea, 988–995

SALMON Hatchery, A Visit to the Craig Brook, 396–409
Sanatoria for consumptives, 641–653
Sandberg (Rev. Graham), A Tibetan Poet and Mystic, 613–632
Schoolboy, The Teeth of the, 84–93
School Children as Wage-earners, 8–17
Science, Recent, 934–946
Sea power and its limitations, 180–191
Shadwell (A.), The Plague in Oporto, 833–847
Shippard (Sir Sidney), Are we to lose South Africa? 1–7; A Rejoinder, 345–351; South African Problems and Lessons, 881–890
Sierra Leone Disturbances, The, 475–483
Simcox (Miss Edith), The Native Australian Family, 51–64

Simmons (Field Marshal Sir Lintorn), The Excessive Armies of Russia, 173–179
Sommerville (W. A.), Rowton Houses—from a Resident, 445–454
Sorabji (Cornelia), An Indian Plague Story, 410–431
Soudan, the, incidents of travel in, 273–281
Souls or ghosts in Dante's writings, 65–76
South Africa, Are we to lose? 1–7; The Casus Belli in, 334–344; A Rejoinder, 345–351; The Situation in, 522–526; Native Unrest in, 708–716
South Africa, Federal Government for, 702–707
— — some ne'er-do-wells in, 827–832
— — War in, 693–707, 848–864, 865–880, 881–890, 1020–1033
South African Problems and Lessons, 865–880, 881–890
Stephen (Harry L.), The Sierra Leone Disturbances, 475–483
Stillman (W. J.), The 'Decameron' and its Villas, 289–301
Sunday, The Mediæval, 36–50
Supreme Moment, A, 153–172
Sutherland (Alexander), The Fear of Over-Education, 550–555
Swinburne (Algernon Charles), After the Verdict—September 1899, 521

TAYLOR (Miss Ida), Powder and Paint, 633–640
Teeth of the Schoolboy, The, 84–93
Terms used in Modern Gunnery, 905–914
Ter-na-nog, The Humours of, 282–288
Test matches between Australian and English cricketers, 792–797
Thurston (Rev. Father), The Mediæval Sunday, 36–50
Tibetan Poet and Mystic, A, 613–632
Tobias (D. E.), A Negro on the Position of the Negro in America, 957–973
Tory policy and Liberal prospects, 527–540
Town and Country Labourers, 570–590
Townsend (Major C. C.), Electricity in India, 556–559
Trade, The Imperial Function of, 352–366
Trafalgar, The Battle of, 717–728
Tragedy of Paolo and Francesca, Mr. Stephen Phillips's, 915–932
Transvaal Crisis, 1–7, 334–344, 364–366, 522

Transvaal Crisis, Uitlanders' grievances and the casus belli, 334–344
— — our policy after the war, 693–707, 865–876, 886–890
— — the war and the newspapers, 848–864, 1020–1034
Transvaal question and its future settlement, 865–880
— — Sir Bartle Frere's forecast, 881, 882
— war and its lessons, 876–880, 881–890
Trevelyan (George Macaulay), Carlyle as an Historian, 493–503

UNITARIANISM and Christian Creed, 654–672
Unpaid public services, 541–549

VAN DYCK Exhibition at Antwerp, 734–752
Vienna hospitals and nursing, 591–602
Voluntary workers in the public service, 541–549

WAGE-EARNERS, School Children as, 8–17
Wage-earning women and family life, 193–201
Wages of town and country labourers, 583–590
Waiting in a Friend's Room, While, 77–83
Wallis (Henry), Thirteenth-century Persian Lustre Pottery, 560–569
Walpole (Sir Spencer), Lord Ellenborough, 123–130
War, After the Present, 693–707
War-cloud, The, in the Farthest East, 988–995
Ward (Mrs. Humphry), The New Reformation, 654–672
Waterfalls as generators of electrical power, 556–559
'Werner,' Did Byron write it? 243–250
West (Sir Algernon), The Great Unpaid, 541–549; While Waiting in a Friend's Room, 77–83
Whitechapel, relief of the poor in, 818–826
Wilson (Rev. C. Usher), The Situation in South Africa, 522–526
Women and artificial aids to beauty, 633–640
Women's Congress, 18–25; A Woman's Criticism of, 192–202; A Reply, 455–458
Wood (Arthur F.), Old-age Pensions in France, 131–141
Wootton (A. C.), Cricket in 1899, 792–797
Wyndham (Hon. Percy), Town and Country Labourers, 583–590

YOUNG (D.), The Dalmeny Experiments: 'Manuring with Brains,' 782–791